Absentee Ballots for Americans

Dear

Thank you for using Vote From Abroad \(VFA\) to generate your Overseas Voter Registration and/or Request for Absentee Ballot Form (the FPCA). To complete the process, you must submit your signed and dated FPCA Form to your Local Election Official in the U.S.

1. Review your FPCA Form

Please make sure the information provided on your form is correct.

2. Print, Sign, and Date your FPCA Form

3. Send In Your Signed & Dated FPCA Form to Your Local Election Official

You may send in your FPCA via the methods listed here:

Overseas Voters	In-Person	Mail	Fax	Email	Online
Voter Registration
Absentee Ballot Request
Voted-Absentee Ballot Return

Please check our Election Information pages for additional information and witness or signature requirements. You can see the deadlines for your state in the VFA Dates and Deadlines listing.

Option 1 – Postal Mail:

Be sure to include the correct postage for overseas mail to the US. The mailing address for regular or overnight mail is:

Option 2 - Email:

Scan the signed and dated FPCA into your computer or mobile device and email to:

Subject line: Overseas Voter Form Attached

Important note for the following states - AR, CT, NJ, NY, TX and VT:

If you send in your FPCA form by email or fax you must also send in the original signed copy by postal mail at the same time subject to the deadline dates for your state, which you can look up here: <https://www.votefromabroad.org/vote/svid.htm>

Option 3 - Fax:

Fax your signed and dated FPCA to:

The fax line operates 24 hours a day/7days a week.

4. Confirm Your Ballot Request

After you submit your FPCA Form, we recommend you contact your Local Election Official (LEO) to confirm that it has been received and that you will receive your ballots as requested. You can contact your LEO at:

5. Mark Your Calendar!

Mark your calendar! If you do not receive your Official Absentee Ballot 30 days before the Election, go to VoteFromAbroad.org and request your Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot \(FWAB\).
