

You must submit your Vote-by-Mail - Absentee Ballot Request to your Election Office!

Thank you for using the U.S. Vote Foundation (US Vote) site to generate your state-specific Vote-by-Mail - Absentee Ballot Request form.

Important Note: You must be registered to vote before you submit your Absentee Ballot Request. If you did not yet register to vote, please return to our website to generate your voter registration form and submit that first.

To check if you are a registered voter: consult the US Vote site's State Voting Requirements / "State Lookup Tools" for a link to your state's voter registration lookup tool. Or, contact your local election official – contact details are listed in this letter, below.

Please follow these steps to complete the ballot request process.

1. Check your form:

Verify your information: If changes are needed, return to the US Vote website, <http://www.usvotefoundation.org> to correct and download a new form.

2. Print and sign your form:

- Print, sign and check the date on your Ballot Request form.
- Your election official requires your ORIGINAL SIGNATURE on the form.
- You can check options for sending in your form on our website under State Voting Requirements / "Voter Materials Transmission Options".
- All states allow for forms to be mailed by post.
- Plan to send in your form to your election office as soon as possible.

Address your envelope and send your form to your local election office:

US Vote recommends regular postal mail as the most secure method for transmitting your confidential election materials to your local election official.

3. Check the Required Voter Identification:

Check the US Vote site's State Voting Requirements / "Identification Requirements." Make sure to include copies of the required identification with your signed form.

4. Questions? Need Help?

Every voter has an election official who is the local contact your for voter assistance.

About Us

U.S. Vote Foundation (US Vote) is a nonpartisan, not-for-profit, civic tech development organization with a crystal-clear mission, Every Citizen is a Voter. Our goal is to enable every US citizen to influence the leadership of their communities and country through the power of their vote.

Our Foundation receives no grants: We rely on membership and donations. There is always another election around the corner and our development work never stops. Even the smallest contributions go a long way.

Double-check the form on the next page. We tried to pre-fill it for you, based on what you've told us, but it doesn't always come out right.

If you find something missing, like an unchecked box, use your pen to correct it by hand. And remember to sign the form.

We're constantly working on improving our service to U.S. voters. If you want to give us feedback, we invite you to contact us at voterhelpdesk@usvotefoundation.org.
