Other frequently asked questions about registering and voting

Will I need identification to vote?

If you vote in person, yes. If you are voting by mail for the first time, you may need to provide a photocopy of your ID.

A complete list of acceptable forms of identification is at the bottom of this page.

When is the last day to register to vote?

29 days before an election.

What is mail-in voting?

If you choose not go to the polls on Election Day, you may apply to vote by mail-in ballot.

Under Colorado law, your mail-in ballot application must contain your printed name, signature, residence address, mailing address if you wish to receive the ballot by mail, and date of birth. If you do not provide all of this information, you may not receive a mail-in ballot according to the rules established by the Secretary of State.

What is permanent mail-in voting?

If you choose to be placed on the list of permanent mail-in voters, you will receive a mail-in ballot for every applicable election. Alternatively, you may ask for a mail-in ballot for a specific election or the calendar year.

Will I stay on the list of permanent mail-in voters?

Yes, unless

- you send a letter, or fill out this form and select the check box to remove your name from the list. Send the letter or completed form to your County Clerk's Elections Office.
- your mail-in ballot is returned as undeliverable.
- your voter registration record is marked "Inactive."

What is the deadline for requesting a mail-in ballot?

If you want a mail-in ballot sent to you by mail, your county clerk and recorder must receive your application no later than the close of business on the 7th day before the election. If you want to pick up your mail-in ballot, you must apply no later than the Friday preceding the election. If you mail your application, make sure to allow time for delivery.
